

COUNCIL OF GOVERNMENT SCHOOLS ORGANISATIONS (COGSO)

EXECUTIVE OFFICER

COGSO is the peak body for school councils in the Northern Territory's government schools. We support continuing improvements in the public education system that will enable schools to help our children reach their full potential.

We're looking for an Executive Officer to work with our President, Executive and membership to:

- Research implications of education policy and emerging issues for school communities, families and children and the education system
- Advise the President and the Executive in effective ways we can realise our aims
- Develop solid networks to support COGSO's work
- Develop and manage projects that will support COGSO's aims
- Manage a small secretariat and occasional project staff

COGSO is offering a family-friendly position with a flexible approach to where and how you do the job. We can pay up to $56,000 for up to a 36 hour week and we'll negotiate a suitable and sustainable arrangement with the right person.

We want someone who can:

- Think creatively and analyse with subtlety
- Understand the language of policy and education and be able to express it in Plain English
- Write incisively and with utmost clarity
- Network consistently to amazing effect
- Understand the dynamics of working with a committee of volunteers, learn quickly how to work most effectively with our President and Executive

If you think this sounds like you, contact us on 8999 3255 or by email enquiries@ntcogso.org.au.

We'd love to hear from you.
